

Frodsham & District Photographic Society

Established 1965

Internal Competition Rules

Version 23
September
2022

Internal Competition Rules

1. Entries may be submitted in any or all categories:

Prints (Colour and Monochrome) Digital
Images (Colour and Monochrome)

All images must be member's own work.

Monochrome definition:

Greyscale images. Toned images and partial or spot toned images are permitted irrespective of the process used; provided only one tone has been added.

The Competition Entries Manager reserves the right to decide whether a print or digital image is eligible.

2. The number of entries allowed for each category is:

- Up to 4 images per member for each competition.
- The total number of entries into the competition may be limited to 60 at the discretion of the Competition Secretary.
- Members should indicate the priority order of their entries on the website entry form.
- In the event that entries have to be limited.

3. All entries must be titled and labeled. Titles must not include punctuation marks such as commas, exclamation marks or question marks.

- Digital Images must be saved with the title as filename. The file name and the title must match EXACTLY, except that the file name must have underscores instead of spaces.
- Prints should have a completed official club label attached.

Any digital image or print not labeled in the correct way may not be accepted by the Competition Secretary. Prints should be labeled on the back top right hand corner with the title.

4. The last acceptance date for entries will be 23:45, 13 days before the competition to allow for image preparation and sending to the judge.

The arrangements for submitting physical prints will be no earlier than 23:45, 13 days before the competition. If a later submission date is agreed with the judge, members will be notified via the website.

5. Prints must be a minimum of 13cm x 18cm and presented on suitable card mounts a maximum of 40 cm x 50 cm in size.

Hooks or other impediments that may cause damage to other prints when being handled, stored or transported should not be attached.

The rear mount of a double mounted print should be the same external size as the front mount (ie. the window mount if used)

Digital Images (Colour and Monochrome) should be JPEG format, in sRGB colour space. The dimensions will be indicated on the online competition entry page.

6. Set Subject or Open Subject competitions may be arranged during the season under these rules. Other informal challenges or competitions may also be included in the programme.

In addition, there will be the Annual Open competition.

7. An image may only be submitted to one Set Subject competition and the one Annual Open competition. An Open Subject competition is classed as a Set Subject. A colour/mono conversion of an image will be regarded as being a different image.
8. During the judging of the Set Subject Competitions, all entries will be assessed for quality, composition and relevance to the set subject and the following commendations will be awarded:

Commended, Highly Commended and Very Highly Commended.

A winning image will be chosen from those achieving the Very Highly Commended commendation.

For the purpose of the Photographer of the Year awards, points will be allocated on the basis of:

Commended	17 Points
Highly Commended	18 Points
Very Highly Commended	19 Points
Winner	20 Points

9. For the Photographer of the Year Awards for Print and PDI, a member's commendation scores from the qualifying competitions will be added together in each category.

For Overall Photographer of the Year, the commendation scores from all the entries, both Print and PDI, will be added together.

Note: the Annual Open competition does not qualify for the Overall Photographer of the Year award (see Rule 11)

10. The Annual Open competition is excluded from the above points system. Points are awarded in the Annual Open competition in the same way as in the Set Subject competition. (see Rule 9). Separate awards are made to the winner in each of the categories.

Entrance to any club internal competition indicates acceptance of the above rules and related decisions of the Competition Entries Manager.

Updated for 2023